Prospect of Certificate Course on Social Work

The Department of Sociology of Sidho- Kanho- Birsha University offers a certificate course on Social Work (duration- 6 months) for the students in the present crisis moment of human civilization in the form of the outbreak of Covid 19 virus. There are relations between crisis management and social work. The philosophical base of social work is to serve people, to provide basic human rights in the moments of several crisis periods. On the other hand, we also know about the disciplinary importance and research contribution of social work in the knowledge system. Therefore, it is very important to blend the philosophical qualities of social work with the academics for value free and impersonal knowledge creation about society and several social problems and also, to create skill full professional social workers to dealing with those social problems and find the best ever solutions with the assistance of administration, to eliminate those social evils from society. It is very harsh that a professional social worker faced several challenges within society, but they never give up and continue their fight against several social problems. Therefore, we tried to offer here such a course to the students where they can get this blended knowledge about society. In our course we tried to-

1. demonstrate the diverse social reality,
2. provide a specialized and professional knowledge of society,
3. develop the skills of social work interventions,
4. find the social evils persist in society,
5. find the best possible strategy to fight against several social problems.
